DETAILED ACTION

1. This application does not contain an abstract of the disclosure as required by 37 CFR 1.72(b). An abstract on a separate sheet is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claims 1-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. The claims need to positively set forth the manipulative steps in the invention. The claims are generally narrative and indefinite, failing to conform with current U.S. practice. They appear to be a literal translation into English from a foreign document and are replete with grammatical and idiomatic errors. For example, in claim 1 line 7, it is unclear as to the manipulative step of "of making emptying-preparatory holes". The claims need to positively set forth the manipulative steps in the invention.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 1, 6, 8-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Stonehouse (#WO 99/43561). As best understood and based upon PCT search report, Stonehouse shows the method of making a package with an emptying hole (O) wherein the paper layer is coated with plastic. The empty hole does not penetrate fully through the layers as claimed. The cutting is made with a laser and the package material has a separate pouring element outside the package in the area of the emptying hole.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claim 7 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Stonehouse in view of Ashley et al (#4,723,391). Stonehouse substantially shows the claimed subject matter but does not show a pull-off opening strip as claimed. Ashley et al show a pull-off opening strip 18 that covers openings (col 2 line 36) as claimed. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to provide Stonehouse with a pull-off strip as taught by Ashley et al to cover openings and pull off the strip during use as is known in the art.

7. Claims 2-5 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

8. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
